|------------------------------|---------------------------|
| ديمة سمحة القياد سكوب | مستغيث بها الثرى المركوب |
| ألم بربعها صباحا فألفى | لملم الشيب في لمم الجبال |
| و أهيف، أن زعزعة البنا | ن أمطر في الطرس ليلا أحم |
| أنا السيف إلا أن للسيف، نبوة | ومثلي لا تنبو عليك مضاربه |
| وإن صخرًا لتأتم الهداة به | كأنه علم في رأسه نار |

Q.No.01-Explain with reference to the context any one of the following passages into Urdu or English.10

(a) A deep silence met the reading of this letter. Miss Mason took off her glasses, blew on them and wiped them on her soft white handkerchief. Then she put them on again and looked at the class. When she spoke, her voice was very low. "I am sure that none of the boys and girls in Room Thirteen would purposely and deliberately hurt anyone's feelings because his or her name happened to be a long, unfamiliar one. I prefer to think that what was said was said in thoughtlessness. I know that all of you feel the way I do, that this is a very unfortunate thing to have happened — unfortunate and sad, both. And I want you all to think about it." The first period was a study period. Maddie tried to prepare her lessons, but she could not put her mind on her work. She had a very sick feeling in the bottom of her stomach.

(b) Our elders are often heard reminiscing nostalgically about those good old Portuguese days, the Portuguese and their famous loaves of bread. Those eaters of loaves might have vanished but the makers are still there. We still have amongst us the mixers, the moulders and those who bake the loaves. Those age-old, time-tested furnaces still exist. The fire in the furnaces has not yet been extinguished. The thud and jingle of the traditional baker's bamboo, heralding his arrival in the morning, can still be heard in some places. Maybe the father is not alive but the son still carries on the family profession. These bakers are, even today, known as pader in Goa. During our childhood in Goa, the baker used to be our friend, companion and guide. He used to come at least twice a day.

Q.No.02- Explain with reference to the context any one of the following stanzas into English or Urdu. 10

(a) I think I could turn and live with animals, they are so placid and self-contain'd.

I stand and look at them long and long.

They do not sweat and whine about their condition,

They do not lie awake in the dark and weep for their sins,

They do not make me sick discussing their duty to God.

(b) The trees inside are moving out into the forest,

the forest that was empty all these days

where no bird could sit

no insect hide

no sun bury its feet in shadow

the forest that was empty all these nights will be full of trees by morning.
